

AXMOUTH UNITED F.C.

Brief History of the Club:

The Club first joined the Perry Street League in 1923 as Axmouth AFC. Later, in the 1930s, the Club played in the Axe Vale League and won the Seaton Hospital Cup in three consecutive years (1935-36-37).

After the break for the Second World War the Club reformed as Axmouth United FC and returned to the Perry Street League where it remained for over twenty years. In 1969 Axmouth achieved a treble; being Division 2 champions and also winning both the Tommy Tabberer and Division 2 Cups.

In 1970 Axmouth moved to the Exeter & District League (now the Devon & Exeter League) and spent five seasons there; long enough to be undefeated champions of Junior 3 East in 1971. That same season Axmouth Utd played in the very first final of the Syd Carlisle Cup, losing in a replay to Broadhembury.

In 1975 the Club rejoined the Perry Street League where they again stayed for over twenty years. During this period they won another treble in 1976 as Division 3 champions along with the Bill Bailey and John Fowler Cups, and completed a double in 1986 as Division 2 champions and cup winners. 1990 saw Axmouth Utd win another double with the Arthur Gage Memorial Cup and the Division 1 Cup. They were also cup winners on eight other occasions.

In 1998 Axmouth Utd rejoined the Devon & Exeter League and won the Grandisson Cup in 1999. Since then the Club has gained a number of promotions and now plays in Division 3 (the highest it has ever been). The Club won the inaugural Mark Northcott Memorial Trophy in 2011 and the Syd Carlisle Cup in 2013. The most recent success was winning the Golesworthy Cup in 2014.
